CARLA J. CHRISTOFFERSON
OWNER

Carla Christofferson's passion and enthusiasm for the Los Angeles Sparks has propelled her into the ranks of some of the most successful professional team owners. Now in her third season as co-owner of the Los Angeles Sparks, she continues to work towards her vision to strengthen the Los Angeles community as well as her desire to improve the experience of the Sparks fans.

Well known as a community activist, Carla has worked tirelessly to ensure that the youth of Los Angeles have mentors and achievable goals and that women understand that members of the Sparks team and organization are role models. This work is done through her commitment to the I Have a Dream Foundation as well as her dedication to the American Heart Association. Because of her determination, she has helped elevate the team to new levels of philanthropy.

Recently recognized as a Trailblazer by the Women's Foundation of California, Christofferson has both created a vision of excellence amongst the community and organization, as well as seen that vision through, in her years as co-owner.

She is currently the Managing Partner at the Los Angeles office of O'Melveny & Myers, LLP, and has used the experience, knowledge and understanding gained there to help make her dreams for the Los Angeles Sparks a reality. In her fifteen years with the firm, she has focused on commercial civil litigation, specializing in energy, accounting, and contract disputes.

Among her many awards, she was recognized as one of Southern California's "Super Lawyers" for her achievements and in 2008 and 2009 she was named one of the top 75 Women Lawyers in California and as one of the top 100 most Influential Lawyers in California.

A graduate of the University of North Dakota, summa cum laude, and Yale Law School, Christofferson is a native of Tolna, N.D where played basketball, softball and ran track in high school and played basketball in community college. She was selected Miss North Dakota in 1989 and is a recipient of the 2007 University of North Dakota Young Alumni Achievement Award. Prior to purchasing the Sparks, she was a season ticket holder since 1999. Christofferson currently resides in Los Angeles with her husband Adam.

LOS ANGELES SPARKS

OWNER

Kathy Goodman's dedication to the Sparks has been apparent since the team's inaugural season in 1997. After many years as a season-ticket holder and loyal fan, Goodman, along with co-owner Carla Christofferson, acquired the Sparks in hopes of creating a stronger presence in the community while still maintaining the family values that first attracted her to purchase the team.

After her first three seasons, Goodman's leadership and drive have led her to do just that. She has created a strong community presence, developed much needed partnerships in the Los Angeles Community and has continued to set the standard in the WNBA for independent owners. Under her direction, the Sparks' community initiatives and activities have both flourished and thrived.

Currently, Goodman is an English teacher at High Tech Los Angeles, an independent charter school in Los Angeles, recently named a California Distinguished School.

For five years, Goodman served as President of West Coast Operations for Intermedia Films, an independent motion picture production and finance company, which she helped found in 1996. During her tenure at Intermedia, Goodman helped the company which produced and financed over 25 films including "Sliding Doors," "Hilary and Jackie," and "The Wedding Planner." She also helped the company go public on the German Niue Market in 2000.

She was recently recognized as a Trailblazer at the Women's Foundation of California Momemtum Awards for her accomplishments and courage in leading the Sparks organization over the past three years.

Goodman is a member of the Board of Directors of Women's Care Cottage, an organization that helps move women and children off the streets permanently and succeed independently in their homes, schools, communities and workplaces.

Born on the West Coast and raised on the East Coast, Goodman is a graduate of Harvard University and the University of Chicago Law School. She currently resides in Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES SPARKS

KRISTIN BERNERT PRESIDENT

Kristin Bernert began her first season at the helm of the Los Angeles Sparks franchise in October 2008. Since that time, her impact on the organization has been swift as she has begun implementing her strategic plan to position the Los Angeles Sparks as the marquee team of the WNBA. Her vast business and basketball knowledge have enabled her to continue achieving the goals of the organization through a balance of leadership, hard work and a focus of teamwork.

Prior to taking her post as Team President, Bernert spent three years as the Vice President of Team Business Development with the WNBA. In this position she was responsible for driving growth in all areas of team business for the WNBA's 14 teams. She was also in charge of facilitating the development and execution of league events and integrated initiatives.

Bernert spent 2002-2005 as the Vice President of Operations for the Detroit Shock. In this role she was responsible for the coordination of all aspects of Shock business, including ticket sales, marketing, corporate sponsorship, community relations, public relations, and event operations.

Widely known as a "go-getter" and self-motivated leader, Bernert has over 10 years of sports business experience in leading teams, growing sales and creating dynamic marketing campaigns.

A native of Stow, Ohio, Bernert began her professional sports career in corporate marketing with the Cleveland Indians. Prior to that she held the positions of Assistant Director of Athletics Marketing at the Ohio State University and Assistant Athletics Director for Marketing and Communications at Bowling Green State University.

Bernert, who currently resides in Los Angeles, was a four-year letter winner in basketball at Siena College and was named to the GTE/CoSIDA District II Academic All-America, First Team in 1996.

PENNY TOLER
VP & GM

Penny Toler is entering her 10th season as General Manager and first as Vice President of the Los Angeles Sparks. Her skill at building rosters of the most talented female athletes in the world and keen sense of basketball operations are complemented by her years as a professional athlete. Through her experience she has built the rosters of two back-to-back WNBA championship teams with the Sparks in 2001 and 2002.

Toler's duties include a variety of responsibilities year-round, with overall attention to the day-to-day management of the team. Her management decisions include contract negotiations, salary cap relations and strategy and the scouting of collegiate and international players. In addition to those tasks, she also works in various marketing, public relations, and other management functions.

Toler retired from playing professional basketball in November 1999 with a combined 13 years overseas/WNBA experience to become the second General Manager in team history. In just two years, Toler became the fastest person in any men's or women's professional sports league to win a championship after being named General Manager from player status. Toler delivered the first WNBA Championship to the city of Los Angeles by dethroning the four-time WNBA champion Houston Comets (2001).

In her nine years as General Manager, Toler has guided the team to the WNBA Playoffs in nine seasons, (1999-2006, 2008), as well as three conference championships in 2001, 2002 and 2003, and two WNBA championships in 2001 and 2002. In an effort to advance the women's game, Toler was a strong advocate of implementing the 24 second shot clock and turning the two, twenty minute halves into four, ten minute quarters.

After being named Sparks General Manager, Toler was invited to join the USA Basketball Women's Competition Committee where she assisted in the selection of three gold medal winning teams: the 2002 World University Championship games, the 2004 Olympic team and the 2008 Olympic team.

Widely recognized as the first player to score a basket in WNBA history, Toler began her career with the Sparks as the starting point guard in the league's inaugural game on June 21, 1997 at the Great Western Forum against the New York Liberty. Originally allocated along with Lisa Leslie as one of two Los Angeles franchise players, she ranked second in points per game (13.1) and first in free throw percentage (83.9%). Toler shot 41.7% from three-point range, ranking her second in the WNBA among three-point percentage leaders, and she also finished fifth in the league in assists with 4.8 per game.

Beyond the WNBA, Toler combined her sense of community and business savvy and began her "Points from Penny" program in 1998. The goal of the program is to teach youth in the Los Angeles and Las Vegas areas the fundamentals of basketball, the importance of teamwork and the value of competition. The program was nominated for several awards during its tenure, including the American Express Entrepreneurial Spirit Award. Since that time she has focused on bringing the same type of community oriented programs to the Sparks front office. For the past six seasons, the Sparks players, coaches and staff have participated in the Academic Skills Basketball Clinic, a program created by Toler that emphasizes the importance of academics as well as athletic success.

In 1989, she was highly recruited by teams in Europe. Until 1997 Toler played for a number of organizations overseas including Montecchio and Pescara in Italy, Sporting Flash in Greece, and Ramat HaSharon in Israel. During this time, she acquired many honors and finished the 1995 European Cups as the fifth leading scorer, averaging 22 points per game.

Toler graduated from Long Beach State University in 1989 where she set several school records including career assists (513) and career free-throw percentage (.795). A member of two Final Four teams, (1987 and 1988), under Coach Joan Bonvicini, Toler earned Kodak All-America honors, Pacific Coast Athletic Association Player of the Year and Co-Player of the Year/Big West recognition in 1988 and 1989. Toler scored 2,193 points in three seasons of play at LBSU (she sat out the 1985-86 season after transferring from San Diego State). Toler's impressive collegiate career was recognized in a Hall of Fame ceremony in 1995 and a Jersey Retirement ceremony in 2007 by the Long Beach State Athletics Department.

Toler made history again in a 2006 in front of players, fans and staff when her number 11 Sparks jersey was the first and only female athlete's jersey to be retired at the STAPLES Center.

Toler's hobbies include going to the movies, getting interior design tips from HGTV, and working with underprivileged youth and donating to battered women's programs. She also sits on the Long Beach State Advisory Committee for the Sports Management program. Raised in Washington D.C. with three brothers and four sisters, Toler currently resides in Los Angeles.

MICHAEL COOPER
HEAD COACH

Michael Cooper is in his second tenure as Head Coach and his eighth season with the organization. In 2008, Cooper led the Sparks back to the Western Conference Finals and doubled the teams win total from 2007. The Sparks finished 2008 in third place in the Western Conference with a 20-14 overall record.

His first stint as Sparks head coach spanned the 2000-2004 seasons. After originally joining the Sparks as an assistant coach in 1999, Cooper was then named head coach in November of that year. In his first season as head coach, he earned the 2000 WNBA Coach of the Year Award after leading the Sparks to their best record in franchise history (28-4). In more than four seasons, Cooper guided the Sparks to a 116-31 (.789) regular season record, four playoff appearances and three finals appearances. Under his direction, the Sparks became WNBA Champions in 2001 and 2002.

Following his 12 year playing career, he served as Special Assistant to Lakers general manager Jerry West for three years before joining the Lakers coaching staff in March 1994. Cooper spent the 2004-05 NBA season as an assistant coach for the Denver Nuggets, including a period as interim head coach. In 2005, he took over the basketball operations responsibilities for the NBA D-League's Albuquerque Thunderbirds. In his first season, the Thunderbirds took home the NBA D-League championship.

Drafted out of New Mexico by the Los Angeles Lakers in the third round (60th overall), Cooper became an integral part of the "Showtime" Lakers teams of the 1980s with his defensive prowess. In his twelve-year playing career with the Lakers (the only team he ever played for in the NBA), he earned eight NBA All Defensive Team selections – including five First Team honors – and was named the NBA's Defensive Player of the Year in 1987. Cooper was a member of five NBA Championship teams (1980, '82, '85, '87, and '88). Retiring after the 1989-90 season, he was ranked among the club's career top 10 in three-point field goals (428), games played (873), minutes played (23,635), steals (1,033), blocked shots (523), assists (3,666), defensive rebounds (2,028), offensive rebounds (741) and free throw percentage (.833).

Cooper played two seasons with the University of New Mexico Lobos (1976-78) and was selected to the Lobo Hall of Honor in 1992. He was named to the first team All-Western Athletic Conference and led the Lobos to the conference title as a senior, averaging 16.3 points, 5.7 rebounds and 4.2 assists per game. In addition to being a success on the court, Cooper was recognized for his community efforts off the court. During the 1985-86 seasons, Cooper, along with New York's Rory Sparrow, was selected by the Pro Basketball Writer's Association as the recipients of the J. Walter Kennedy Citizenship Award.

Cooper was honored with the Commitment to Excellence Award during the 2007 Los Angeles Sports Fans Choice Awards. Cooper has four children, Michael II 27, Simone 24, Miles 18, and Nils 3.

MARIANNE STANLEY

ASSISTANT COACH

Hall of Fame Coach Marianne Stanley returns to the Los Angeles Sparks sideline this season as an assistant coach to Michael Cooper.

Stanley's decorated basketball career began as a two-time national champion while playing at Immaculata College near Philadelphia. She joined the coaching ranks at age 23, and guided Old Dominion University to three national championships. Stanley has also served as head coach at the University of Pennsylvania, Stanford University, the University of California-Berkeley and the University of Southern California, where she coached outstanding players such as Lisa Leslie and Tina Thompson. Stanley posted a 416-222 (.652) record in 21 seasons as a college head coach, guiding her teams to 10 NCAA Tournament berths. Three times her teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament Final Four, and five times reached at least the Elite Eight.

For 13 years (1983-96), Stanley served on numerous USA Basketball coaching staffs as both an assistant and head coach, including the 1986 gold-medal winning World Championship team.

In 2000, Stanley joined the Sparks as an assistant coach to Michael Cooper. She had a two-year stint as head coach of the Washington Mystics, leading them to the playoffs in 2002 and winning the WNBA's Coach of the Year Award. In 2004, Stanley joined the New York Liberty as an advance scout and later became an assistant coach to Pat Coyle.

Stanley returned to the college arena in 2006 as an assistant coach to C. Vivian Stringer at Rutgers University and helped guide the Scarlet Knights to the NCAA Championship game in 2007.

Stanley's days on the court and on the sidelines have earned her many accolades, including an induction into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2002, the Pac-10 Conference Coach of the Year in 1993, the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year in 1984 and 1985, and an All-American selection as a player in 1975 and 1976.

Off the court, Stanley has been an active member in the community, lending a hand to groups such as Hoops for Africa, the YMCA, Hope House Foundation and National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

SHANNON BOBBITT

BIOGRAPHY

Shannon Bobbitt begins her second season in the league after playing 26 games in her rookie debut with the Sparks. Selected 15th overall by the Sparks in the 2008 WNBA Draft, Bobbitt's play excelled midseason as her minutes rose. She notched two double digit assist games while directing the offense to victories over the Houston Comets and the Minnesota Lynx.

The 5'2" guard came to Los Angeles with a history of winning and a list of accomplishments. From the Bronx, Bobbitt was an outstanding prep basketball player at Murry Bergtraum High School in New York. In her junior season, Bobbitt helped her Lady Blazer squad to a 30-0 undefeated record and the national high school championship. The next year, the team went 29-1 and finished third in the nation, and she was named an adidas All-American.

After high school, Bobbitt attended Trinity Valley Community College in Texas and led the Cardinals to the NJCAA National Tournament and the 2006 Region XIV Championship with a 30-2 record overall. She was the 2006 Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Junior/Community College Player of the Year and earned Kodak All-America honors.

Bobbitt became only the second Lady Volunteer junior college transfer since 1977 when she accepted a scholarship to the University of Tennessee after her sophomore season. There, the shortest player on scholarship in Lady Vol history would help lead her team to two consecutive NCAA National Championships alongside fellow Sparks forward Candace Parker.

MARIE FERDINAND HARRIS

Biography

Beginning her second season with the Sparks after being signed by Los Angeles as a free agent in early 2008, Marie Ferdinand-Harris is a versatile shooting guard who can slash to the basket and break down any opponent.

Ferdinand-Harris averaged 8.2 points and 1.5 assists during the 2008 campaign, with a season-best 19 points against the Connecticut Sun.

Before joining the Sparks, the 5'9" guard was a three-time WNBA All-Star with the San Antonio Silver Stars (formerly the Utah Starzz) and still holds the Silver Stars record for career steals with 246.

Selected as the eighth pick of the 2001 WNBA Draft, Ferdinand-Harris was a superstar at Louisiana State. She was a 2001 Kodak All-American, an Associated Press Second Team All-American and a First Team All-SEC selection.

She is one of only three LSU players to record at least 1,500 points, 500 rebounds, 300 assists and 200 steals in her career. In 2007, her college success was recognized as she was honored as one of the Southeastern Conference "Greats" and inducted into the LSU Sports Hall of Fame.

KRISTI HARROWER

BIOGRAPHY

In her first year with the Sparks, Kristi Harrower brings six years of WNBA experience along with a wealth of international success. Harrower is a three-time silver medalist with the Australian women's team (2000, 2004, 2008), and the 2008 Basketball Victoria Female Player of the Year. She last played in the WNBA for the Minnesota Lynx in 2005.

Harrower averaged 3.6 points, 2.4 assists, and 1.6 rebounds in only 18.4 minutes per game for her WNBA career. In her best season with the Lynx she averaged 5.3 points, and 2.8 assists in only 18 minutes per game.

The 5'4" guard led her Bendigo Spirit in 2008-09 with 19.4 points and 6 assists in 20 games played. In her final season with the Lynx, Harrower averaged 4.6 points in 34 games.

Born in Australia, Harrower calls her parents her greatest inspiration. Her father is head coach of the Australian Bendigo Lady Braves basketball team, so basketball comes naturally to Harrower.

She was awarded the Betty Watson Medal for the 2008 Female Player of the Year. The medal is presented to the Australian female player who has made the greatest contribution at state, national and international levels in the past year.

BETTY LENNOX 22

BIOGRAPHY

In her first season in Los Angeles, Betty Lennox brings nine years of WNBA experience to a team loaded with talent. The 5'8" guard was the sixth overall pick by the Minnesota Lynx in the 2000 WNBA Draft and was named 2000 Rookie of the Year and an All-Star. In 2004, Lennox helped to lead the Seattle Storm to the WNBA Championship and received the Finals MVP award.

Betty "B-Money" Lennox is coming off the most productive season in her career. She averaged 17.5 points, 4.2 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 1.3 steals per game in 34 outings with the Atlanta Dream in 2008.

Born in Hugo, Oklahoma, Lennox is the eighth of nine children. She had five older brothers who spent their free time playing basketball when they weren't working hard on the farm. Lennox also spent time working on the family farm and is no stranger to hard work and that is evident in her play on the court.

Lennox spent her first two college seasons playing for Trinity Valley Community College in Texas and was part of the Tigers' 1998 Junior College National Championship. She transferred to Louisiana Tech, and in her senior season was named the 2000 Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year and a U.S. Basketball Writers Association First Team All-American.

In 2005, Lennox started the Lennox Foundation 22 to support kids in all communities who battle with the horrors of neglect and abuse. It strives to give them the opportunity to experience life in a different way; by giving them support, love, education, and self-motivation through basketball. Lennox won the WNBA's Community Assist Award in June 2006 for making a difference in the community.

LISA LESLIE

BIOGRAPHY

Considered one of the most dynamic, popular female basketball players in the world, Lisa Leslie is a pioneer of the sport. She is a four-time Olympic gold medalist and three-time WNBA MVP. Her slam-dunk, the first in WNBA history, was voted the "Greatest Moment" in the WNBA's first decade.

Standing six feet tall when she was in the sixth grade, Leslie picked up a basketball in middle school and has never looked back. While at Morningside High School in Inglewood, CA, she led the team to two state championships.

In college at the University of Southern California, she finished as the all-time Pac-10 leader in points, rebounds, and blocked shots. After college, Leslie launched her modeling career. She signed with the prestigious Wilhelmina Agency in 1996.

In 2001, Leslie was the first WNBA player to win the regular season MVP, the All-Star Game MVP and the WNBA Finals MVP in the same season. That year, she also led the Los Angeles Sparks to their first WNBA Championship. In 2002, after leading the Sparks to their second consecutive WNBA Championship, she was named MVP of both the WNBA Finals and WNBA All-Star Game. She garnered WNBA MVP award honors again in 2006.

Not only has she dominated the WNBA for the past 12 seasons, she has led Team USA as a member of the gold-winning U.S. Olympic teams in 1996, 2000, 2004 and 2008. She is the first team sport athlete to win four consecutive Olympic Gold Medals and is the all-time leader in points and rebounds for the Women's Olympic team.

Recently, Lisa Leslie sat out the 2007 WNBA season as she and her husband, Michael Lockwood, welcomed their first child in June. During this time, Leslie wrote her memoir, Don't Let the Lipstick Fool You: The Making of a Champion, which illustrates her journey to become a notable woman athlete and, ultimately, a champion.

In addition to her international exposure as a four-time Olympic Gold Medalist, WNBA superstar and author, Lisa is also an ESPN broadcaster of women's college basketball, wife of former U.S. Air Force Captain and recent author, Michael Lockwood, mother to three precocious young daughters, as well as a philanthropist and community activist.

8 DELISHA MILTON-JONES

BIOGRAPHY

Both a two-time WNBA champion and Olympic gold medalist, Delisha Milton-Jones has become accustomed to winning and success on a large stage.

To begin her professional career, Milton-Jones joined the Portland Power as the second overall pick in the 1997 American Basketball League draft. After two seasons and the folding of the ABL, Milton-Jones became part of the Los Angeles Sparks as the fourth overall draft selection in 1999.

The 6'1 forward quickly had an effect on the Sparks in her first season, playing in all 34 games and helping guide the team to its first playoff appearance in franchise history. Milton-Jones would also be an integral part of the 2001 and 2002 Sparks WNBA Championship teams. After six successful years in Los Angeles, Milton-Jones was traded to the Washington Mystics in 2005, where she would play her next three seasons, before again returning to Los Angeles in 2008. Milton-Jones helped the Sparks return to winning in 2008 by improving its regular season record by 10 wins.

Milton-Jones' success began long before she was in the WNBA. She attended the Bradwell Institute in Hinesville, Georgia, where she was named the 1992 and 1993 Naismith High School Player of the Year.

During her 1993-97 tenure with the University of Florida, Milton-Jones helped the Gators to a 91-34 record and four NCAA tournaments, highlighted by a 1997 Elite Eight appearance. She received the 1997 Wade Trophy as the nation's top female basketball player who also serves as a role model off the court, and was a 1997 All-America selection while averaging 19.4 points and 8.8 rebounds per game. Milton-Jones was a two-time first-team All-SEC selection in 1996 and 1997, a second-team selection in 1995, and a Freshman All-SEC choice in 1994. She earned her degree in sports management with a minor in mass communications.

In 1997, Milton-Jones received the University of Florida President's Recognition Award for her civic activities. She participated in many community activities and charities, including visiting people in hospitals, running to raise funds for breast cancer and Alzheimers research and giving motivational speeches to students and teenage parents.

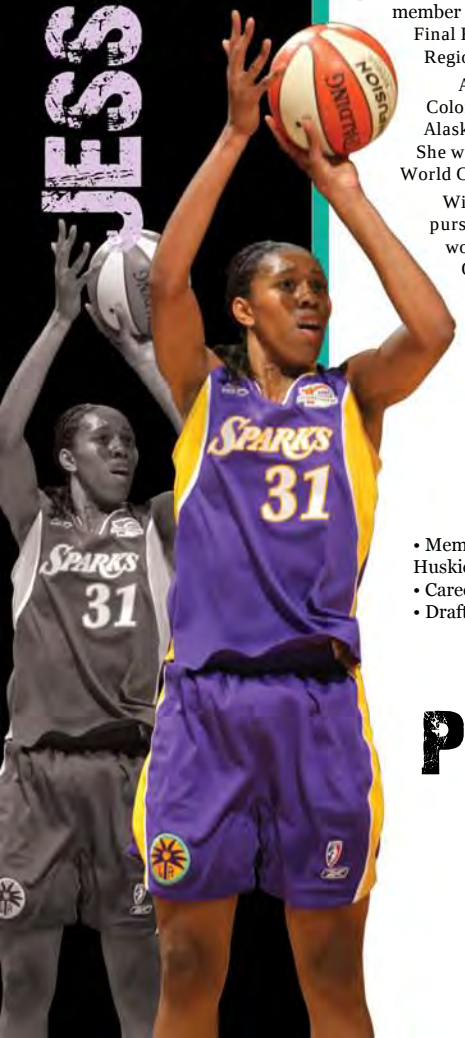
JESSICA MOORE 31



BIOGRAPHY

Drafted 24th overall in the 2005 WNBA Draft by Charlotte, Jessica Moore is now in her fifth season with the Sparks. Over her WNBA career, Moore is averaging 2.9 points, 2.2 rebounds, and 0.6 assists in 14.0 minutes.

The 6'3" forward/center enjoyed her best season as a member of the Sparks in 2006. She averaged career highs in points (4.3) and minutes (19.3) per game while starting 33 out of the 34 games played. Moore had a career high of 7 defensive rebounds vs. the Minnesota Lynx on 8/13/06 and 4 steals vs. San Antonio on 5/25/06.

An accomplished athlete, Moore played college basketball at the University of Connecticut where she averaged 8.4 points and 5.8 rebounds while shooting 58.4 percent from the field. She was an important member of three NCAA National Championship teams in 2002, 2003, and 2004. Over the course of her career in Connecticut, Moore saw action in every game (145) and finished with a record of 132-13. She finished ranked third all time in field goal percentage at UConn (.584).

After suffering an ACL tear in her left knee during the 2004 National Championship game with UConn, Moore returned as a senior to average 8.4 points and 6.3 rebounds. She was a 2005 All-Big East Honorable Mention, a member of the 2005 Big East All-Tournament team, a 2004 NCAA All-Final Four selection, named to both the 2003 NCAA Tournament East Regional All-Tournament team and Big East All-Tournament team.

An Alaskan native, Moore played her high school basketball at Colony High School in Palmer, Alaska. She earned the Gatorade Alaska Player of the Year twice while also playing varsity volleyball. She was also a member of the 2001 USA Basketball Women's Junior World Championship Team.

With a degree in communication science, Moore would like to pursue a career in politics in addition to basketball. The person she would most like to have a conversation with is President Barack Obama.

3 CANDACE PARKER

BIOGRAPHY

Her historic 2008 year started with winning her second NCAA National Championship at the University of Tennessee. She then was selected first overall in the WNBA Draft. She was part of the 2008 U.S. Olympic gold medal winning team in Beijing. After the season, she was the first to be named the Rookie of the Year and the Most Valuable Player.

Now, Candace Parker has become a household name.

In her very first WNBA game, the 6'4" forward recorded the best rookie debut in history. She posted 34 points, 12 rebounds and eight assists and helped the Sparks to a victory against the then-Defending Champion Phoenix Mercury. Parker won the 2008 May and July Rookie of the Month awards, and led all rookies in scoring (18.5 ppg.), rebounding (9.5 rpg.), blocks (2.3 bpg.) and minutes (33.6 mpg.). She also led the league in double-doubles (17) and rebounds, was second in blocks and fifth in points.

Parker played for Naperville Central High School in her hometown of Naperville, Ill. She was twice chosen as both the Naismith and Gatorade Prep Player of the Year, and became the first woman to ever win a slam-dunk contest when she won the 2004 PowerAde Jam Fest as part of McDonald's All-American Game festivities. In that contest, Parker bested several future NBA dunkers including J.R. Smith and Rudy Gay.

The 2008 CoSIDA Academic Athlete of the Year earned her degree with a major in sports management and a minor in psychology from the University of Tennessee after arguably three of the greatest seasons in NCAA history. Parker won two NCAA titles with the Volunteers, and was twice named the National Player of the Year by each major award committee.

Parker gave birth to her first child, a daughter in May of 2009.

NOELLE QUINN 12

BIOGRAPHY

In her third WNBA season, Noelle Quinn begins her first campaign with her hometown Sparks.

Selected fourth overall in the 2007 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx, the six foot guard had an injury laden rookie year but bounced back to average 3.6 points, 2.2 rebounds, and 2.5 assists in only 16.7 minutes per game in 2008. The Los Angeles native returns home ranked tenth in the league in assists per 40 minutes (6.1) in 2008.

Born in Los Angeles, Noelle has one sister and spent most of her childhood on the basketball court. She enjoys listening to music and playing the piano. Growing up, Quinn was a Sparks fan. Her mother, Golden Quinn, has been a Sparks season ticket holder since the WNBA's inaugural season.

Quinn was a stand out collegiate athlete and finished her career as the fourth all-time scorer in UCLA women's basketball history with 1,829 points. She also totaled 794 rebounds (eighth all-time) and 450 assists (seventh all-time) to become the only UCLA basketball player, man or woman, to record career numbers of at least 1,800 points, 700 rebounds and 400 assists. She earned honorable mention All-America honors in her last two seasons and first-team All-Pac-10 acclaim as a freshman, junior and senior, as well as 2004 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year honors. Quinn also excelled in the classroom and was a business/economics major.

Quinn attended Bishop Montgomery High School in Torrance, Calif., where she won four CIF Division III State championships, led Bishop Montgomery to four Del Rey League titles and was selected as a McDonald's All-American. In 2001 Quinn was a member of the U.S. Junior National championship team.

32 TINA THOMPSON

Biography

The first draft pick in WNBA history, Thompson was selected by the Houston Comets and helped lead them to WNBA championships in each of the league's first four seasons, and into the playoffs 10 of her 12 years. A member of the WNBA All-Decade team, Thompson has been named to the All-WNBA team eight times and was the WNBA All-Star Game MVP in 2000.

Thompson took the same road to stardom as her Sparks and Olympic teammate, Lisa Leslie. She started at Morningside High School in Los Angeles, then moved on to the University of Southern California and the WNBA.

A three-time All-Pac 10 selection at USC, Thompson was a second-team All-American as a senior in 1997. She finished fifth on the school's career lists in scoring (2,248 points) and rebounding (1,168), and helped USC to three NCAA tournaments and one Elite Eight appearance, the latter as a freshman in 1994. At USC, Thompson earned a degree in sociology with a minor in psychology, and would like to one day pursue a law degree.

At Morningside High, Thompson was named the 1993 California AAA Player of the Year. She ended her prep career with more than 1,500 points and 1,000 rebounds.

She is the second leading scoring in WNBA history with 5,424 career points to date and has won two Olympic Gold medals in 2004 & 2008.

Tina missed a portion of the 2005 season to give birth to her son Dyllan in May 2005.

2 BRITNEY JORDAN

BIOGRAPHY

The Sparks selected Britney Jordan with their third pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft. From Division II Texas A&M Commerce, Jordan came to Los Angeles unknown to most fans.

The 5'8" guard averaged a nation-leading 31.3 points per game, and added to that with 6.9 rebounds, 5.4 assists and 2.5 steals per outing.

She was named a 2009 Daktronics Division II Women's Basketball First-Team All-American for the first time after the 2008-09 season. With that selection, Jordan became the first player in school history to receive first-team All-American honors. She finished the season with 909 points, a Lone Star Conference and school record.

The Peoria, Ill., native earned multiple honors and accolades as a two-year starter at Peoria Woodruff High School. She averaged 31 points and 10 rebounds as a junior and 28 points per game as a senior. Jordan, a three-time Peoria Journal Star Class 2A Player of the Year, was selected to the McDonald's All-America Team as a senior.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

Biography

The Sparks were surprised when former Oklahoma Sooner Ashley Paris was available for their second pick in the 2009 WNBA Draft. Regarded as one of the top 15 players in the draft, Los Angeles picked up the twin sister of Courtney Paris knowing she was a steal at the 22th pick.

The 6'3" forward averaged 12.5 points and 9.6 rebounds while helping lead her Sooners to a Final Four appearance. She recorded 17 double-doubles on her way to first-team All-Big 12 honors in the 2008-09 season. Paris is only the fourth player in Oklahoma history to score more than 1,000 points and grab 1,000 rebounds in her career.

The Piedmont, Calif., native was named a USA Today All-American in all four years at Piedmont High School. She averaged 18 points, 4.5 assists and 13 rebounds per game as a senior, and was a 2005 Parade Magazine first team All-American. She scored eight points and grabbed eight rebounds in the 2005 McDonald's All-American game.

Paris played with her twin sister Courtney at Oklahoma University. Courtney was picked 7th overall in the draft by the Sacramento Monarchs.

College Highlights

- First team All-Big 12
- Fourth player in Sooner history to record more than 1,000 points and rebounds in her career
- Recorded 17 double-doubles in 2008, 28 for her career

LINDSAY WISDOM-HYLTON

BIOGRAPHY

Drafted 13th overall in the 2009 WNBA Draft, Lindsay Wisdom-Hylton is coming fresh off an Elite Eight appearance with her Purdue Boilermakers.

Wisdom-Hylton averaged 13.3 points and 9.2 rebounds per game in her senior season after sitting out 2007-08 while recovering from ACL surgery.

The 6'2" forward was named to the All-Big Ten first-team for the second time and the All-Defensive Big Ten team for the third time in her career. She leaves Purdue as the team's all-time leader in rebounds and blocked shots, and second in career double-doubles with 25.

The Naperville, Ill., native played with fellow Sparks star Candace Parker in junior leagues before the two attended different high schools.

At Neuqua Valley High School, Wisdom-Hylton was a three-time IBCA all-state selection, a 2004 WBCA All-American honorable mention, and a Student Sports Senior All-American.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Two-time All-Big Ten
- Three-time All-Defensive Big Ten
- Holds Purdue school record for blocked shots and rebounds
- 25 career double-doubles
- Led the Boilermakers in points (13.3), rebounds (9.2), and blocks (1.5) per game in 2008 while shooting 50.6 percent from the field.

LOS A

HISTORY

SPARKS HISTORY

Established in 1997 as one of eight original teams in the WNBA, the Los Angeles Sparks tipped off the WNBA Inaugural Season on June 21, 1997 versus the New York Liberty at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, CA. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history enroute to a 67-57 victory for the Liberty. The League concluded the inaugural season with a league-wide attendance average of 10,207 fans per game. Los Angeles compiled an impressive 74-48 record in four seasons at the Great Western Forum before following their NBA counterparts, the Los Angeles Lakers, to STAPLES Center, located in the heart of downtown Los Angeles.

Led by former WNBA Coach of the Year, Michael Cooper, the Sparks went on to tie a League record and franchise best 28 wins in their WNBA debut at STAPLES Center in 2001. Posting a record-breaking 9-0 start to the 2001 campaign, Los Angeles completed the regular season undefeated at home with a WNBA best 16-0 mark. The Sparks also topped the League at No. 1 in points (76.3), defensive rebounds (.720), total rebounds (.39) and assists (18.3) per game and captured their first ever WNBA championship – sweeping the Eastern Conference Champion Charlotte Sting in the championship series. Former team point guard, Penny Toler retired from basketball in November 1999 to become the first WNBA player in the league's history to go from the hardwood to the executive suite as General Manager of Player Personnel. She is also the fastest player-turned-manager in any men's or women's league to assemble a championship team (two years).

In 2002, the Sparks became the second team in WNBA history to repeat as Champions – going undefeated (6-0) through the playoffs en route to a sweep of the Eastern Conference Champion New York Liberty. The Los Angeles Sparks held an impressive 12-1 playoff record during their back-to-back championship seasons.

The 2003 season proved to be an injury riddled one for the Los Angeles Sparks. Resiliently, the Sparks overcame their injuries and went on to win the Western Conference Championship for a third consecutive season. The Sparks had a convincing Game 1 victory over the Detroit Shock 75-63. They were then faced with the scenario of trying to become the first team in WNBA history to win the Championship on the road. This feat nearly came to fruition as the Sparks overcame a 19 point deficit in Game 2 at Detroit; however, the Shock pulled out the nail-biter 62-61 to force a deciding Game 3. The championship game, held at The Palace at Auburn Hills, proved to be a historic event as it was home to the largest crowd in WNBA history – 22,076. The Detroit Shock's victory was sealed by Deanna Nolan's three-point basket with 53 seconds remaining and perfect free throw shooting down the stretch.

The 2004 Sparks continued their impressive streak of playoff appearances by making it to postseason play for the sixth-straight year with a 25-9 regular-season record. However, the Sacramento Monarchs ended the Sparks' chances of repeating as Western Conference Champions with a first-round series victory over Los Angeles. 2004 WNBA MVP Lisa Leslie led the league in rebounds per game and was third in scoring. Leslie and teammate Nikki Teasley each received All-WNBA recognition.

2005 introduced Los Angeles to 6-time WNBA All-Star Chamique Holdsclaw, who led the '05 Sparks in points, free-throws made and consistently ranked in the top three in the league for points, minutes, and field goals. Sparks veteran Lisa Leslie continued to impress fans in Los Angeles with her 15.2 points per game and 71 total blocked shots. A 2005 All-Star, Leslie made history as the first player to dunk in a WNBA All-Star game. With 13 wins and 16 losses under head coach Henry Bibby, assistant coach Joe "Jellybean" Bryant took over for the final five games (4-1) allowing the team to finish squarely at .500 (17-17). With a perfectly split record, the Sparks caught a glimpse of the postseason, but their tireless efforts were outmatched by the Monarchs for the second straight year.

2006 proved to be a historical year for the Sparks as players reached career milestones and as the organization changed ownership. Lisa Leslie became the first WNBA player to reach 5,000 career points and was named the WNBA's Most Valuable Player for the third time. Leslie's distinguished career was honored in an on-court celebration in which then-team president Johnny Buss dedicated the court to the record-breaking center. Milestones by the Sparks did not cease there. In a historic presentation, Penny Toler's decade of involvement with the Sparks as an exceptional player and as a dedicated General Manager, was recognized when her No. 11 jersey was retired during a Sparks game, marking the first female jersey to be retired at STAPLES Center. With Coach Bryant at the helm, the 2006 Sparks boasted a 25-9 regular season record and came back to beat the Seattle Storm after a first game loss in the Western Conference Semi-finals. The Sparks concluded the '06 season when they were defeated at the Honda Center, formerly the Arrowhead Pond of Anaheim, when the Sacramento Monarchs came to visit in a battle to advance to the WNBA Finals.

After a decade of commitment, the Los Angeles Lakers and the Buss family sold the Sparks to a group of investors led by Carla Christofferson and Katherine Goodman. Fans themselves, Christofferson and Goodman are tenaciously focused on captivating Sparks fans through new and exclusive experiences. First order of business for the new owners was bringing dynamic coach Michael Cooper back to the Sparks. The Sparks are now one of six WNBA teams to be owned and operated independently of NBA teams.

The 2007 season had its share of ups-and-downs. With Coach Cooper in place but star center and team captain Lisa Leslie out for the season, other players worked to fill the void. The team was hit by another surprise when star forward Chamique Holdsclaw announced her abrupt retirement from the WNBA just five games into the season. The 2007 season ended with the Sparks finishing with the worst regular-season record in the league and franchise history at 10-24, and for the first time in nine seasons the team failed to make the playoffs. One bright spot in the 2007 season was the spectacular play of rookie Sidney Spencer who led the Sparks in points (327), led WNBA rookies in free-throw percentage (88.1%), and in double-doubles (2).

The 2008 season brought excitement back to Los Angeles. After a disappointing season in 2007, the Sparks returned three-time MVP Lisa Leslie and all-star forward DeLisha Milton-Jones to the floor. The addition of rookie sensation Candace Parker had Sparks fans hoping for their third WNBA Championship in the fall of 2008. The Sparks were lead all season long by the big three as Parker led the team in scoring (18.5ppg) and rebounds (9.5rpg), Leslie chipped in 15.5 ppg and led the team in blocked shots (3.1bpg) and Milton-Jones was also solid averaging 13.9 ppg and 6.3 rebounds. The Sparks finished the regular season in third place in the Western Conference and returned to the playoffs. The Sparks took on the Seattle Storm in the first round and won the series 2-1 and were back in the Western Conference Finals hoping to contend for the Championship. Fate had a different plan for the Sparks, as they were 1.3 seconds away from returning to the WNBA Finals when the San Antonio Silver Stars converted on a game winning basket. The Sparks lost game three in San Antonio and with that, the season was over. Although the Sparks did not win their third WNBA Championship in 2008, they did take home three of the most prestigious individual league awards. Lisa Leslie won the 2008 Defensive Player of the Year award and Candace Parker became the first player in WNBA history to win both the Rookie of the Year award and the league MVP award in the same year. The Sparks finished 2008 with a 20-14 regular season record.

Now in 2009, the Sparks look to unveil the greatest team ever assembled on paper. With the additions of Tina Thompson, Betty Lennox, LA native Noelle Quinn and a strong draft class, the Sparks have only one goal – to bring home a championship to the city of Los Angeles.

The Sparks have another reason to win this season. In early 2009, Lisa Leslie announced that this year would be her final season in the WNBA. With the game's greatest player retiring, the Sparks want to send the face of their franchise out with a spectacular championship celebration. Along with stars and fellow Olympians Candace Parker, Delisha Milton-Jones and Thompson, Leslie's final season will be one to remember.

WNBA HISTORY

History of the WNBA

On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June of 1997.

Since that day in 1996 there have been many firsts for the WNBA:

Sheryl Swoopes -- the first player signed to the WNBA

Cynthia Cooper -- the league's first Most Valuable Player

Houston Comets -- the first WNBA Champions

Lisa Leslie -- the first WNBA player to dunk (7/30/02 vs. Miami)

Lauren Jackson – the first international player to win MVP (2007)

Candace Parker – the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)

Sylvia Fowles – the first goaltending call (vs. LA 6/3/2008)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, California. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks' guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

A Growing Game

The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past twelve seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and our league reflects this trend, featuring 23 international players from 16 countries and territories at the end of the 2008 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased +277% since 1990 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 18% since 1990 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). And female NCAA basketball participation has increased 43% since 1990 (from 10,551 to 15,096 players).

Key Rules

• Ball size: 28.5" (high school and NCAA women's)

• 3-point line: 20'6 1/4" (International)

Several key rule changes have been implemented over the last few seasons:

• The format of WNBA games changed to four 10-minute quarters instead of the previous two 20-minute halves.

• In addition, the 24-second shot clock replaced the previous 30-second clock. It is now reset to 14 seconds when a defensive foul or other defensive violation occurs with less than 14 seconds remaining on the shot clock. It is left unchanged when a defensive violation occurs with 14 seconds or more remaining on the shot clock.

• The backcourt rule requires offensive teams to bring the ball across the mid-court line within eight seconds rather than 10 seconds.

• The timeout rule requires officials to grant requests for a timeout (full or 20-second) by a player in the game or the head coach. Previously, only players in the game were allowed to call timeouts.

• Team rosters now consist of 11 players.

All-Star Game

The 2009 WNBA All-Star Game will be held at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, CT on Saturday, July 25. ABC will televise the game which tips off at 3:30 p.m. ET.

In 2008, the WNBA did not hold an All-Star Game due to the month-long, mid-season break for Summer Olympics. The league did, however, conduct its annual All-Star Salute: Inspiring Women Luncheon in San Francisco on July 30. The luncheon, at which noted TV journalist Robin Roberts received the Inspiring Woman Award, also served as a send off for the U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball team. While the entire 12-member U.S. team was comprised of WNBA players, a total of 39 current and former WNBA players dotted the rosters of 10 of the 12 countries participating in the Olympics.

The 2007 WNBA All-Star Game, the league's eighth such contest, was played in front of a sellout audience on July 15 at the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C. A crowd of 19,487 fans witnessed the East defeat the West, 103-99 as Cheryl Ford of the Detroit Shock clinched the MVP honors. A key highlight of the All-Star festivities in 2007 was the second annual All-Star Salute: Inspiring Women Luncheon, featuring keynote speaker and Secretary of State Dr. Condoleezza Rice.

Inspiring Women

The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family and community. Past honorees include Good Morning America's Robin Roberts, former Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice and the WNBA All-Decade Team.

Marketing

The WNBA has garnered unprecedented marketing support for a women's professional sport, and enjoys long-standing partnerships with major national and international brands such as adidas, Gatorade, Nike, and T-Mobile. New partners in 2008 included such major companies as McDonald's, Kia Motors, IHOP, Pitney

Bowes and HP. Starwood Hotels and Resorts was announced as a partner in 2009.

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fan base of women, families and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally-televised games, national promotions, player endorsements and special events.

Through the WNBA's extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas, the sporting goods and apparel giant not only serves as the official outfitter of the WNBA – having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 – but also as the presenter of the 2007, 2008 and 2009 WNBA Drafts and in 2008 became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the Playoffs and Finals.

The 2008 season also featured the first WNBA marketing partnership in China with Peak, China's number one domestic basketball footwear brand, following the announcement in February.

ATTENDANCE AND TV RATINGS

Fueled by incoming stars Candace Parker, Sylvia Fowles and Candice Wiggins, the 2008 Draft, the most anticipated in WNBA history, drew significantly higher TV and Internet numbers. The rating on ESPN2 was up 69 percent over the previous year's telecast, and viewership was up 137 percent. Similarly, WNBA.com shattered the all-time daily traffic record to the site during the WNBA Draft, with nearly 324,000 visits, more than doubling the previous record set during the 2007 Draft. Page views were up 127 percent; site visits increased 106 percent.

The WNBA on national television (ABC and ESPN2) finished up 19% both in ratings and viewership in 2008.

Regular season attendance in 2008 increased for the second straight season. The 2.21% increase came on the heels of a 1.68% increase in 2007. The increased attendance in 2008 also featured 46 sellouts, nearly triple the 17 registered in 2007 and double the previous record of 23 set in 2004.

Just one year earlier, total attendance for the 2007 WNBA Finals between the Phoenix Mercury and the Detroit Shock was 74,178, establishing a new all-time WNBA Finals record. In addition, Game 5's crowd of 22,076 at The Palace of Auburn Hills tied the all-time, single-game attendance record for the WNBA Finals (also set on Sept. 16 2003 of the 2003 WNBA Finals, Los Angeles at Detroit). In addition, the WNBA experienced double-digit increases in viewership during the 2007 postseason.

Viewers recognize ESPN2 as the television destination for the WNBA. "WNBA Tuesdays" continued throughout the 2008 season, offering fans a dedicated night to tune in and watch their favorite WNBA players.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, 8-year TV deal with ESPN that tips off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA's 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women's pro team sports league in the U.S.

GLOBAL REACH

Now in its second decade, the WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2008, for the second straight year, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 32 languages, surpassing the 2006 total of 198 countries. Included were new television agreements in six countries: Argentina, Bulgaria, Jamaica, Pan Africa, South Korea and China. In addition, for the third consecutive year, fans in China were able to view WNBA action via live Web casts on NBA.com/china.

WNBA rosters for the 2008 season featured 25 international players from 17 countries and territories. Among the league's international contingent are the Indiana Fever's Tammy Sutton-Brown (Canada), the San Antonio Silver Stars' Sophia Young (St. Vincent) and the Sacramento Monarchs' Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal).

10TH ANNIVERSARY

The WNBA's 10th anniversary season, celebrated in 2006, featured significant interactivity with fans playing a key role in selecting the league's All-Decade Team, the WNBA's Greatest Moments and the starters for the 2006 WNBA All-Star Game.

The WNBA Greatest Moment presented by AOL.com was unveiled during Game 1 of the 2006 WNBA Finals. Fans, who were able to log on to www.aol.com/wnba, voted Teresa Weatherspoon's half-court, buzzer-beater – a shot that propelled the New York Liberty to victory in Game 2 of the 1999 WNBA Finals and on to a deciding Game 3 against the Houston Comets – as their favorite moment in the WNBA's 10-year history. Prior to that, initial voting was conducted in four distinct categories as fans voted for winners of the all-time Greatest Shot (Weatherspoon), Greatest Pass (Sue Bird of the Storm leading a fast break during the 2003 All-Star Game), Greatest Milestone (Lisa Leslie of the Sparks throwing down the first dunk in WNBA history on July 30, 2002) and Greatest Inspirational Moment (Edna Campbell of the Monarchs making a triumphant return to the court on Aug. 13, 2002, after battling breast cancer). The winner from each comprised the final ballot.

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

Six WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm and Washington Mystics. Force 10 Hoops, L.L.C., the entity owned by Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel and Dawn Trudeau, purchased the Seattle Storm on Feb. 28, 2008 while on Oct. 17, 2007, Atlanta businessman J. Ronald Terwilliger was awarded an expansion franchise, the Atlanta Dream. In addition, the Los Angeles Sparks opened the 2007 season with new ownership after Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson, two long-time season ticket holders, bought the Sparks on Dec. 7, 2006. They joined Sheila Johnson's Washington

The 2009 WNBA Draft presented by adidas took place at the NBA Entertainment studios in Secaucus, New Jersey. Angel McCoughtry, Kristi Toliver and Marissa Coleman were selected as the top three overall picks.

The 2008 WNBA Draft presented by adidas took place in Tampa, Florida on April 9, marking the third straight year the draft was held immediately following the NCAA Women's Division I Championship Game and conducted in the same city as the Final Four. The Los Angeles Sparks made Candace Parker the top overall pick; Sylvia Fowles was selected second by the Chicago Sky and Candice Wiggins third by the Minnesota Lynx. For the first time in WNBA history, all five starters from one college team were selected in the draft as Parker, Alexis Hornbuckle, Shannon Bobbitt, Nicky Anosike and Alberta Auguste – teammates on the University of Tennessee's national championship squad – were chosen. Parker would go on to be the first player to earn the WNBA's MVP award in her rookie season.

The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts and love for the game. Tamika Catchings of the Indiana Fever won the inaugural award for the 2007 season. A member of the WNBA's All-Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women's basketball history while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian.

The WNBA All-Decade Team was selected in 2006 as part of a season-long celebration of the league's 10th Anniversary. Chosen from among 30 nominees by fans, a panel of national and WNBA-market media and the league's current players and coaches, the team is comprised of the 10 best and most influential players from its first 10 years of play. Named to the team were legends and current players including, Sue Bird, Tamika Catchings, Cynthia Cooper, Yolanda Griffith, Lauren Jackson, Lisa Leslie, Katie Smith, Dawn Staley, Sheryl Swoopes and Tina Thompson. Players earning honorable mention status were: Ruthie Bolton, Chamique Holdsclaw, Ticha Penicheiro, Diana Taurasi and Teresa Weatherspoon. Van Chancellor, who led the Houston Comets to consecutive WNBA championships in the league's first four seasons, was named the WNBA's Coach of Decade. Chancellor also was named to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2007.

Seven women serve as owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics), Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks) and Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel and Dawn Trudeau (Seattle Storm). An eighth, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.

Johnson, a co-founder of Black Entertainment Television, became the WNBA's first African-American female owner on May 24, 2005 when she joined Ted Leonsis' Lincoln Holdings LLC, which in turn purchased the Washington Mystics from Washington Wizards' owner Abe Pollin. Williams, also African-American and a former member of the group "Destiny's Child," became the first female musician to become part-owner of a professional sports team, joining the company of Jay-Z (NBA New Jersey Nets), Usher (NBA Cleveland Cavaliers), Nelly (NBA Charlotte Bobcats), Julio Inglesias (NBA Miami Heat) and Jon Bon Jovi (AFL Philadelphia Soul).

In 2008, Candace Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player of the Year in the same season. The first selection in the 2008 WNBA Draft, she earned both honors after leading the league in double-doubles and rebounds per game, while also ranking second in blocks per game and fourth in points per game. She also became just the second player joining Lisa Leslie, to dunk in a WNBA game.

Also in 2008, the Detroit Shock became just the second WNBA team to win at least three titles, sweeping the San Antonio Silver Stars to win their third title in six seasons. The Houston Comets won the first four championships from 1997-2000.

In 2007, the Detroit Shock and Phoenix Mercury combined to score the most points in a game in WNBA Finals history during Game 1 when Detroit edged out Phoenix 108-100. The Mercury matched the Shock's output with 108 points of their own to tie the WNBA Finals record for points in a game.

In 2007, the Mercury became the first team to win the WNBA Championship on the road as they defeated the Shock in the fifth and deciding game on September 16 at The Palace of Auburn Hills.

Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks was named MVP in 2006 for the third time in her career after having also earned the honor in 2001 and 2004. Leslie joined the Houston Comets' Sheryl Swoopes as the only players in WNBA history to capture MVP honors three times. Two players have won the award twice in a career: Houston's Cynthia Cooper (1997, 1998) and Seattle's Lauren Jackson (2003, 2007). The others to capture MVP honors are Yolanda Griffith (then with Sacramento in 1999) and Los Angeles' Candace Parker (2008, when she later became the first rookie in league history to earn the award).

Lauren Jackson (Storm) added to her illustrious career on July 27, 2007 when she became the youngest (26 years, 77 days) and fastest (209 games) to score her 4,000th career point. Three days earlier, she tied the league record for points in a game (Diana Taurasi) when she poured in 47 points at Washington.

Diana Taurasi (Mercury) rewrote the WNBA scoring records in 2006 when she led the league with 25.3 points per contest, became the first WNBA player to top 800 points in a single season (860), and the single-season mark for three-point field-goals (121) and the single-game mark for points (47, a number later equaled by the Storm's Lauren Jackson in 2007).

Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks became the first WNBA player to capture the regular-season, All-Star and Finals MVP awards during the 2001 season. Leslie also became the first WNBA player to top the 5,000-point mark when she surpassed that mark in 2006. Houston's Tina Thompson and Detroit's Katie Smith, respectively, became the second and third players to top the 5,000-point plateau for their WNBA career, each reaching the milestone in 2008.

During the 2008 season, Tina Thompson (Houston) and Katie Smith (Detroit) both reached 5,000 points for their WNBA careers, joining Lisa Leslie as the only players to accomplish this feat.

Katie Smith had previously become the first player in United States women's professional basketball history to surpass the 5,000-point plateau on July 13, 2005. She has since recorded her 6,000th point on Aug. 16, 2007. Smith's achievement includes her totals from three seasons in the ABL and her WNBA career.

Also during the 2008 season, Ticha Penicheiro of the Sacramento Monarchs became the first player to ever hand out 2,000 career assists.

Sheryl Swoopes, who earned MVP and Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2000 and 2002, made WNBA history with the league's first triple-double (14 points, 15 rebounds, 10 assists) vs. the Detroit Shock on July 27, 1999.

One current head coach also has played in the WNBA: Jenny Boucek (Monarchs). In 2007, when she took over the Monarchs, Boucek became the first woman to serve in the WNBA as a player, assistant coach and head coach.

Three current head coaches have played in the NBA: Michael Cooper (Sparks), Bill Laimbeer (Shock), and Corey Gaines (Mercury).

Three current head coaches have served as assistant coaches in the NBA, including Mike Thibault (Sun); Michael Cooper (Sparks) and Don Zierden (Lynx).

WNBA Cares

Through the WNBA Cares initiative, the league is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on promoting a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, breast health awareness, youth and family development, and education. WNBA teams and players donate countless dollars and hours each year through league programs including Breast Health Awareness, WNBA Green Week and Go Red For Women, WNBA Fit, Read to Achieve and Jr. WNBA.

MISCELLANEOUS

WNBA Cares

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on programs which promote a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, increase breast and women's health awareness, support youth and family development, and focus on education.

WNBA Fit

WNBA Fit encourages girls and women of all ages to learn more about their bodies and the importance of physical fitness through programs related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. Programming inspires girls and women to get started on "being fit" through small changes in their daily routine. The content of the program is communicated and delivered through a 'Team' of Spokespeople and National and Local Events.

Go Red For Women

The WNBA and the American Heart Association have formed an alliance to promote the Go Red for Women campaign. GRFW encourages women to learn more about heart health, and raises awareness of the risks of heart disease in women.

Breast Health Awareness

For twelve years, the WNBA Breast Health Awareness program has focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. The WNBA and its teams have raised over $2 million to aid in the fight against breast cancer.

WNBA Green

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

Read to Achieve

Read to Achieve is a year-round, league-wide initiative supported by NBA, WNBA and NBA D-League teams that promotes the values of reading and on-line literacy and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children. The program includes special reading time-outs, the donation of books and literacy materials to schools and community based organizations, and the creation of Reading and Learning Centers and Reading Corners throughout the world.

Jr. WNBA

By stressing fundamental skill development, teamwork, sportsmanship and positive adult participation, the Jr. WNBA aims to develop a life-long passion for the game of basketball by providing a support structure that not only encourages participation, but also makes the game fun and rewarding for players, coaches, officials and parents. The Jr. WNBA believes that lessons learned on- and off-the-court as a member of a team are lessons that are useful in building relationships at school, home and work.

Partnerships

In reaching our community relations goals, the WNBA is proud to partner with the following organizations:

- American Cancer Society
- American Red Cross
- Feed the Children
- Girls Inc.
- Habitat for Humanity
- KaBOOM!
- Make-A-Wish Foundation
- National Osteoporosis Foundation
- American Diabetes Association
- American Heart Association
- Boys & Girls Clubs of America
- Centers for Disease Control
- Encyclopedia Britannica
- Girl Scouts of America
- Jack & Jill Foundation
- March of Dimes
- Nothing But Nets
- Prevent Child Abuse America
- Reading Is Fundamental, Inc.
- Susan G. Komen Foundation
- UN Foundation
- UNICEF
- YMCA

SPARKS IN THE COMMUNITY

Over the past decade, the Los Angeles Sparks have been dedicated to making a difference in Los Angeles. We are committed to partnering with community and business organizations in order to enhance the lives of the many children and families that are in need. By putting together programs that support literacy, healthy living, education, youth development, heart health and breast health awareness, we are working towards a better tomorrow.

Through WNBA Cares, the Sparks help promote league-wide initiatives such as Breast Health Awareness, which is designed to educate women on the issues associated with good breast health and honors breast cancer survivors. Lisa Leslie continues to serve as the spokesperson for Breast Health Awareness, a role that she has successfully taken on since 1997. This season the team has taken it one step further by partnering with the Kay Yow Foundation for Sparks Breast Health Awareness night on August 25th. To support the Kay Yow Foundation, the Sparks will have both an online and in-arena auction to benefit their charity.

The Sparks have several strong partnerships with local organizations including the City Scholars Foundation, Cedars-Sinai, the Jenesse Center, American Heart Association and March of Dimes.

The City Scholars Foundation is a non-profit organization that offers quality leadership, management and curriculum training, to help non-profit, neighborhood after-school program leaders build and sustain more effective organizations to better serve more than 19,000 inner-city youth throughout Los Angeles. The Sparks have partnered with Pitney Bowes through a league platform to support the City Scholars in the Fastbreak to Reading Program in which a Sparks player will go to a certain center and read to the kids and stress the importance of education.

Our work with Cedars-Sinai is centered around their largest fundraising event, “Run For Her,” which is a walk to raise funds to fight ovarian cancer. Each year, the Sparks team up with Cedars-Sinai in their efforts. Sparks players, coaches, owners, staff and fans come together as one team to walk or run in the hopes of raising funds for the research.

A new partnership for the 2009 season is with the Jenesse Center, a place for families who have been victims of domestic violence to find shelter and a new start. This year, the Sparks team, including the Ole Skool Crew and owners Carla Christofferson and Kathy Goodman, will get together to refurbish an old apartment to prepare it for a new family to live in. Each of these families has their own story and domestic violence can happen to anyone. The Sparks want these families to feel as though they are at home away from home and to know that they have a safe place.

The Sparks have a continuing partnership with the March of Dimes that includes participating in their annual March for Babies event and on June 28th of this year, we will be raffling off a Toyota car during our game. This partnership hits especially close to home for the Sparks as we have multiple mothers on our team. At their event this year, Candace Parker was on hand to speak about the importance of every baby being born healthy and mothers carrying for their full term.

In addition to our Breast Health Awareness campaign, we are also heavily involved in the American Heart Association’s Go Red For Women movement. Each year in Los Angeles, the AHA hosts a luncheon and in 2009, Sparks co-owner Carla Christofferson was the Chair of the Event Committee and Sparks center Lisa Leslie was the keynote speaker. She motivated the women to take care of themselves just as much as they try to care for everyone else. The Sparks Go Red For Women night will take place on June 21, 2009.

The Sparks continue to donate tickets to hundreds of charitable organizations throughout the season. In order to fulfill the requests, a voucher system has been implemented and recipients are given the opportunity to choose the game they wish to attend. Also, interacting with members of our community is an opportunity we take seriously, and we are eager to reach fans through community appearances based on our availability.

The Los Angeles Sparks are role models on and off the court and take pride in inspiring and empowering people of all ages and all walks of life throughout Los Angeles and around the world.

TOYOTA SPORTS CENTER

On April 28, 1999, the Los Angeles Lakers, the Los Angeles Sparks and the NHL's Los Angeles Kings officially "broke ground" on the new $24 million Toyota Sports Center. Located at 555 N. Nash Street in El Segundo, the sports center is built on a six-acre site which is part of the new Grand Avenue Corporate Center. The sports center includes a basketball court, a pro shop, two public ice rinks and outdoor in-line skating rink, a restaurant, an interactive game studio, locker rooms and training facilities for the three teams, and office spaces for Lakers and Kings.

The state-of-the-art training facilities at the disposal of the teams and support staff include a weight room that boasts over 10,000 pounds of equipment. The York performance series equipment is specifically designed and customized for use by larger athletes.

Also contained within the weight room are Olympic lifting platforms, the latest balance training equipment and a vast array of cardiovascular equipment. The Lakers/Sparks basketball court boasts a plyometric area, the first of its kind built into the basketball floor to help enhance the jumping ability and explosiveness of team members.

Other amenities of the sports center include a therapy pool for the rehabilitation of injuries as well as cardiovascular exercise, a steam room, a nutrition and supplement station and a 19-seat theater- style viewing room which the players and coaching staff use to watch video and conduct meetings.

Designed by the Drezner group of Los Angeles, the facility became the home of the Lakers and Sparks players in February of 2000.

2009 SPARKS TEAM ENTERTAINMENT

OLE SKOOL CREW

The Ole Skool Crew brings smooth moves and high energy to the Los Angeles Sparks halftime shows.

As the premier halftime performers for the Los Angeles Sparks, the Ole Skool Crew made up of incredibly talented and truly blessed women over 40, are strutting their stuff, raising the roof, and inspiring the crowd to “jump up out of their seats” during the Sparks home games at the STAPLES Center.

The Ole Skool Crew boasts 15 women of different shapes, sizes and ethnic backgrounds. From a former “Soul Train” dancer to a former “Tampa Bay Bandit” cheerleader, these women have done it all and hope to continue making their marks on the court as well as the world.

SPARKIDS

The SparKids are a group of 10 dancers between the ages of 8 and 13 that perform and entertain at every Sparks home game. Their eclectic mix of hip-hop and jazz never fails to rally the thousands of Sparks fans, young and old.

An integral part of the game experience, the SparKids debuted on the hardwood in 1998. The current troupe of SparKids was selected in May 2009. The SparKids style and high level of performance has motivated other WNBA teams to create similar dance teams.

SPARKY

Sparks co-owner Carla Christofferson dreamed up Sparky, an oversized mascot dog that entertains the crowd during breaks in the game. Sparky can be seen at every game, electrifying the crowd with his charm and charisma.

MEDIA GUIDELINES AND POLICIES

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

All requests should be made via e-mail or fax to Sparks PR at least 24 hours PRIOR to the game you wish to cover. NO CREDENTIAL REQUESTS WILL BE HONORED ON GAME DAY. Please make certain all requests for credentials are confirmed by Sparks PR prior to arriving at STAPLES Center. Credentials may be picked up at the primary entrance adjacent to 11th street (between Figueroa and Georgia streets) beginning 2 hours prior to game time. Credentials must be worn and visble at all times and are non-transferrable.
For those members of the media receiving season credentials, you do not need to confirm prior to games.

CHICK HEARN PRESS ROOM

The Chick Hearn Press Room is located near the primary media entrance adjacent to 11th street on the Event Level. The stairway from the primary entrance as well as the elevator leads directly to the press room.

PRE AND POST GAME INTERVIEWS

In accordance with WNBA policy, the Sparks and the visitors' locker rooms will be open to members of the media for 30 minutes ending 1 hour before the start of the game (e.g., media access shall be granted from 5:30–6:00 P.M. for a 7:00 P.M. game). Locker rooms are re-opened to the media after the game following a 10-minute cooling down period and will remain open for 30 minutes. Players and coaches are available for inter views at those times. Only working members of the press with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker rooms. ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIOD.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS

Game notes, rosters, etc. are available in the press room 2 hours prior to game time. Statistics are distributed to the working media at the conclusion of each quarter as well as first half boxes and final boxes. Post-game quotes are distributed as quickly as possible following the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Limited space is available for still photographers along each baseline, with exact locations to be determined on game day. ABSOLUTELY NO TRIPODS ALLOWED. Photographers must stay in their designated areas, and are asked to be considerate of print media and fans directly in their viewing area.

MEALS

Beverages and snacks will be available in the press room during the game.
